Danbi's Favorite Day

(Viking, Penguin Books for Young Readers, April 2023)

In her latest adventure, Danbi is thrilled to invite her friends to celebrate Children's Day, as she did growing up in Korea. She promises kites, tigers, and magic train rides. But when the reality of a picnic behind her parents' deli falls short of her grand plans, Danbi must get creative to save the day.

- ★ “An endearing and hopeful expression of spontaneous fun and togetherness.” —Kirkus Reviews (starred review)

Danbi Leads the School Parade

(Viking, Penguin Books for Young Readers, July 2020)

An Asian/Pacific American Award for Literature Honor Book
Danbi is excited to start her new school in America! And a bit nervous too, for when she walks into the classroom, everything goes quiet; everyone stares. Danbi wants to join in the dances and the games, but she doesn't know the rules and can't get anything right. Luckily, Danbi isn't one to give up!

- ★ “Imaginative, irreverent, improvisational fun in kindergarten”

— Kirkus Reviews (starred review)

“Kim's debut radiates positivity, inclusivity, and hope.”

— Publishers Weekly

Anna Kim creates children's stories for our multicultural world. She created the indomitable Danbi, a spunky little Korean American girl whose curiosity and boundless energy often get the best of her. In illustrations filled with intimate details, Anna brings Danbi to life, as she takes on the world with courage, ingenuity, and unbridled optimism. Anna hopes that young readers will make Danbi their friend, and grow to celebrate with her the diverse world we live in and the magic of friendship. Anna lives in a quiet part of New York City, where she can see trees and hear birds.
